

—BELMATT—
HEALTHCARE TRAINING

HCA Course August 2021

Gill Dunn
Diabetes Specialist nurse

1

Introductions

2

Housekeeping

- Please turn off your video and turn on mute
- Use the chat facility or hand to ask any questions
- Opportunity for Q&A's at the end
- Have paper /pen ready for notes

3

Agenda

	AM Session
09:00-09:15	Welcome Introduction and Housekeeping
09:15-10:15	Pathophysiology, signs and symptoms, complications of diabetes
10:15-11:00	The Annual Review
11:00-11:15	Break
11:15-12:15	Physical Assessments for the Annual Review
12:15-13:15	Lunch
13:15-14:00	The Foot Examination
14:00-14:30	Diabetic Emergencies
14:30-14:45	Break
14:45-15:45	Cardiovascular Disease
15:45-16:00	Summary and Close

4

Session Aims and Objectives

Understand the basic pathophysiology of diabetes

Compare the difference between Type 1 and type 2 diabetes

Identify the signs and symptoms of diabetes

Identify the complications of diabetes

Perform an annual review assessment

Introduction to the foot examination

Understand the importance of recognising diabetes emergencies

Review cardiovascular disease in context of prevention, monitoring and treatment

5

Competency

For Healthcare Professionals:

AN INTEGRATED CAREER AND COMPETENCY FRAMEWORK FOR ADULT DIABETES NURSING

Endorsed by:

Updated June 2021

- Framework to identify your level of practice
- To ensure safety and competence
- Identify gaps in knowledge
- Supports with new tasks
- Unregistered practitioner tasks
- 28 topics related to diabetes care

6

Key Learning Points

For each session jot down a couple of key learning points and how it will change your practice

7

CONTACT INFO

+44 207 692 8709

admin@belmatt.co.uk
info@belmatt.co.uk

www.belmatt.co.uk

Suite 570, 405 Kings Road
Chelsea
SW10 0BB

8