

Paediatric Minor Illnesses Day Autumn 2022

Dr Sam Thenabadu
Consultant Adult & Paediatric Emergency Medicine
Deputy Dean, GKT Medical School

Your task

Scenario 1

- 2 year old with 3/7 history of fever and vomiting
- Change in voice and difficulty swallowing
- Grandmother gave 'herbal remedy' but no improvement and child now sleepy
- HR170 CRT 3S 02 98% RR 48 T39.1

Scenario 2

- 18 month old with 1/7 history of fever, non blanching rash and wheeze
- Reduced eating and drinking
- Previous episode 3 months ago requiring admission as low O2
- HR145 CRT 3S O2 93% RR 52 T39.1
- Exam: chest wheezy and creps L>R

Scenario 3

- 6 year old with 3/7 history of fever and vomiting
- Reduced E&D
- Discharging right ear and headache to right side head
- HR115 CRT 2S O2 98% RR 22 T39.1
- Refusing examination
- Family have Social worker for domestic abuse

Scenario 4

- 9 year old with 3/7 history of fever and widespread rash
- 12 Hx of purulent bilateral discharge and c/o unable to see through right eye
- Mother unwell last 1/52 with cough and fever
- HR115 CRT 3S 02 91% RR 24 T39.8

Source: K.J. Knoop, L.B. Stack, A.B. Storrow, R.J. Thurman:
The Atlas of Emergency Medicine, 4th Edition, www.accessemergencymedicine.com
Copyright © McGraw-Hill Education. All rights reserved.

CONTACT INFO

+44 207 692 8709

admin@belmatt.co.uk
info@belmatt.co.uk

www.belmatt.co.uk

Suite 570, 405 Kings Road
Chelsea
SW10 0BB

